

CITYTIMES

Flash Entertainment in association with City Times are giving away two pairs of grandstand concert tickets for the Il Divo concert at Emirates Palace, West Park on April 2.

Combining all of the popular appeal of previous Flash Entertainment events such as Rihanna and Coldplay, along with the classical gravitas of Andrea Bocelli; the Il Divo concert promises to shatter preconceived ideas of music with a performance of romantic and popular songs in an operatic style. The talented quartet will showcase their most recent album; The Promise, with versions of Frankie Goes to Hollywood's The Power of Love and ABBA's Winner Takes It All alongside much loved classics such as Amazing Grace and Adagio.

For your chance to win just answer this simple question: How many people are there in a quartet?

Winners will be notified individually.

Water way to win

BAX CONSULTING DRAGONS are coming from the desert to take part in Dubai's third International Dragon Boat Festival this weekend at Festival City. However, the team has had to resort to unconventional methods of training: by simulating paddling in Al Ain's rugby stadium's bleachers and sat by a pool for resistance training. Why? BAX Consulting Dragons are based in Al Ain, and in preparation for the tournament they have no body of water to paddle in. Nevertheless, they have trained hard and have an excellent chance of success at the corporate races.

"The team is determined to succeed because of two criteria: training and teamwork. Many of the teammates already play rugby together and training together is crucial even if paddling sessions are 'dry' and don't include a boat. I believe teamwork, dedication, and training are the keys for any team's success, even with challenges," says Managing Partner of BAX Consulting, Jennifer Baxavanis. "BAX Consulting Dragons are the true desert team of this weekend's festival," she added.

The third International Dragon Boat Festival will take place from 8am to 4pm April 2 - 3 at the Festival Marina, Dubai Festival City.
